

HOOVER PUTS SUGAR FAMINE ON WILSON

Does Not Name President, but Blames Bad Business Administration.

COST NATION A BILLION

Would Ration Nonessential Consumers—Palmer Censured for Jail Plan.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. WASHINGTON, May 8.—Herbert Hoover, candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination and former United States Food Administrator, in a long letter which he wired to-day to Senator Capper (Kan.) made statements that place responsibility for the sugar shortage right on the front doorstep of the White House. He said if the Cuban crop had been bought last autumn the country would have had all the sugar it needed and have saved $1,000,000,000 in the cost of it.

This statement has been made before, in effect, but heretofore Mr. Hoover has refrained from such pointed comments. His telegram did not mention President Wilson as personally responsible for failure to buy the Cuban crop, but the President's personal decision against the purchase long has been acknowledged.

Mr. Hoover gave his compliments to the Administration with a free hand. He pointed out that the Sugar Equalization Board and he personally recommended the Cuban purchase, and that the present sugar situation is due simply to bad business administration.

Then he turned to Attorney-General Palmer and observed that "this situation cannot be remedied by the Attorney-General's conception that force of this character can be handled by putting a few people in jail."

It was observed to-day that Mr. Hoover is seemingly getting ready to tell a lot of interesting and important things that therefore he has held back. Senator Capper's letter caused a sensation at the Capitol in anticipation of more revelations that are now hoped for. The Kansas Senator has been conducting a little investigation of sugar on his own account and the Hoover statement was in reply to his request. Mr. Hoover wired:

"The present sugar position is simply a bad business administration. Last September the Administration could have bought the Cuban sugar crop at 6 1/2 cents a pound for raw sugar. This would have given 12 cent sugar to our consumers. As the result of the failure to act in this matter we are participating in the world shortage of sugar due to decreased European production, and we are subject to unparalleled speculation and profiteering. The increase in price is imposing an additional tax on our people of about $50 a family per annum.

"The profiteering is international. The situation is as much disliked by the vast majority of our manufacturers and distributors as by the public, for they do not like even to be accused of profiteering. This situation cannot be remedied by the Attorney-General's conception that force of this character can be handled by putting a few people in jail. Something could be done to remedy matters if our Government even now entered into negotiations with the large European governments to stop bidding against each other and so secure our fair share of the available supplies.

"The second thing that could be done to break this gigantic bubble of speculation would be to reduce consumption through immediate rationing of the non-essential consumers. Over one-third of the sugar is used by the candy, sweet drinks and other manufacturers of non-essentials. During the war, these trades patriotically cooperated in public interest in such reduction and themselves found substitutes for the maintenance of their trade. They would no doubt cooperate again."

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, May 8.—Because she feared he planned to desert her for another woman, Mrs. Henry C. Friedrichs to-day shot and killed her husband, who was secretary of the Elgin Granite Works, and wealthy.

She shot him seven times, then telephoned to the police and waited for their arrival.

"I intercepted a letter written to him by another woman," she testified. "So I decided to kill him. I bought a revolver and a dozen cases of cartridges. I then began putting in hours at target practice in the basement of our home. I would put up an old cap of his in the far end of the basement and shoot at it. With each day's practice I became more expert."

"He used to come home and always kiss me. I would kiss him and smile. To-day the setting was ideal to kill him. There was nobody home but myself. He telephoned about 11 o'clock: 'I'm coming home, dearie, for dinner.'

"All right, sweetheart," I said.

"I had the revolver concealed when he entered the front door. I had stepped off the distance and knew just where to aim. As he entered I emptied the revolver—seven shots. I don't think he realized what had happened. He dropped with an odd little laugh and never spoke again."

As in 1865 and 1899 So is it in 1920

The house of Park & Tilford has seen the reconstruction periods following the Civil War, the Spanish-American War, and now after the Great War.

We wish to repeat at this particular time the 80-year-old policy of this house whether in peace, war or reconstruction periods—to offer highest quality foodstuffs at consistently low prices.

No artificial stimulation, no unusual conditions have ever in our history prompted us to ask other than the fair, normal profits of legitimate business.
